TUESDAY, MAY 8, 1900.

TABOE AND ITS WATER.

The people of Washoe county are exercised over a proposed appropriation of the waters of Lake Tahoe by the cities of San Francisco, Oakland and Sacramento. There is no occasion at this time to become alarmed about an appropriation of these waters by these cities or by any of them, as the facts are. The check there is included in the proposition, which has an outcropping in the long exploded Von Schmidt deal, is the only thing there is in the business worthy of notice.
There is not a man, woman or child on the line of the Truckee river who will live to see these waters diverted to other uses than those that are subject to the natural flow of these waters, which is eastward.

The situation at this time does not demand an outline of the facts, natural or acquired, that operate in opposition to any diversion of the lake waters from the outflow given them by nature.
The cities mentioned are preparing the way to procure water that they will own and control; or, in other words, that each may own a monopoly of the water supply required by each of them.
San Francisco is one of the large cities in the United States that does not own its water supply, and as a matter of economy it has induced the other cities to enter upon an enterprise whereby it is hoped each will receive and each will own its water supply, which is a work that the times demand upon the theory that the people should own public utilities.

The object should be commended, as there is no question about the necessity there is as public utilities are directed and managed by private enterprise and ownership, for the public to own and direct not only such utilities as are required by cities and towns, but all public utilities. To which ownership there is a growing tendency in the times, which will result in an accomplished fact within the next century. The world was created for all the people there is in it, and not for a few of them, who are, in the imperfect way public business is conducted, making the many contribute to their wealth and personal advantage.
While the object of the cities is commendable, it should be and no doubt will be carried forward in a way that will not interfere with the vested rights of others to a water supply.

Should there be any purpose manifested to deprive our people of the rights that nature and their industries have given them, the people of these cities, or the people of California, may find the people of Nevada more given to fight than the British have yet found the Boers to be. What the people of these cities want is a water supply that they will own, and not an almost endless litigation connected with ultimate defeat, in view at the beginning to procure a water supply.

Those in authority in these cities will visit the mountains in June to look into the situation as it is presented by nature with reference to acquiring in the future the water supply required for the use of the people.
Tahoe is a place in the mountains where nature at one time seems to have been short of material and as a result finished its work by leaving a big depression that has since filled with water till it ran over and it has to the present continued to run over.

It is a place of prominence connected with the history of the mountains and is noted for its pure water and those men in authority are desirous to as-ertain if there is any water remaining that has not been by nature and man appropriated that could be made to run over to them.

It will be ascertained by them when examination is made that the dry sands of Nevada and its much despised people by Californians, have long since appropriated the whole of it for their use and that is not all they will learn, as it will be also ascertained by them that Nevada and the people mean to keep it for their use. The people of the cities and of California may yet ascertain, should any attempt be made to take wrongfully any of these waters, that the people of Nevada possess an individuality not to be despised when it is put in motion.
It is to be hoped there will not be any cause for trouble by any ill advised action by the people in the low country.

Our State and its people have been subject to the will and direction of men, who were, in fact, residents and citizens of California, so long that it is the impression in that State that anything may be done in Nevada by the valley people and particularly by the people of San Francisco, that they may will respecting our State and the rights of its people. But that time is passing and the time is not distant when Nevada will display an individuality that may astonish our neighbors over the mountains. When they will learn there are men in Nevada who know their rights and knowing will maintain them to the exclusion of outside meddlers, who assume to lord over and govern us and, if it is so determined by them, take our property and property rights from us.

There are many opportunities to procure water from the large quantity there is flowing from the western slope of the Sierras which is more than nine-tenths of all the waters that flow from these mountains. It seems strange to a person informed upon natural conditions in these mountains that the Sacramento Valley people should entertain a thought, not to mention a scheme, to take for their use any portion of the small quantity that is flowing from the eastern slope to water the people of the desert and its much ridiculous sands and barren waste.
The people of the desert say hands off or there will be trouble.

Grotesque Spelling.
One of the Boston papers calls attention to this wonderful example of bad spelling—and in Boston too! It is from the doorway bulletin board of a little restaurant:
BILL OF FAIR.
Open at all O'wars.

Liver-Bacon, 15. Pork-Beans, 10.
Chicken Fries, 15.
Pudon and Plo, 5.

This reminds the Tales of the Town man of a sign he saw not long ago in the window of a Broadway saloon:
"A ror oster wit evry Drink."

Several months ago there was an announcement laboriously chalked on a St. Clair street sidewalk in front of a beer refectory which read like this:
"Fre lunge 11 2 2."

It took the man who saw this some time to figure out that the patron who didn't drop in between 11 o'clock and 2 o'clock would be very apt to miss the free lunch.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Needed an Explanation.
Sir John Adye, who was governor of Gibraltar fortress, always made himself closely acquainted with the work of whatever happened to be his department. Meeting a person once coming into the office late, the general asked him what time he was supposed to be on duty.

"Oh," was the reply, "I usually stroll in about 11 or 12 o'clock."
"Stroll in?" said Sir John in a rising tone. "Then I presume you do not leave till late?"

"Well, I usually slip off about 2 o'clock."
"Slip off at 2?" exclaimed the veteran in his topmost note. "Pray, may I ask what department you belong to?"

"Oh," said the stranger, "I come every Saturday to attend to the clocks." Sir John retreated for the first time in his life.

A Little Too Hot.
Little Janet, aged 4, noticed the other day at dinner the rest of the family helping themselves liberally to the mustard. Nobody offering her any, she waited until something drew away the attention of the others, when she lifted the mustard spoon, liberally daubed a piece of bread with it and took a great bite. Her hand immediately went up to her burned mouth; but, bravely suppressing an outcry, she put the bread away from her, remarking, "I think I'll wait till that jelly gets cold."

His Nose For News.
"Henry," whispered the maiden in some embarrassment as they stood in the hallway, where the young and handsome reporter was preparing to say good night, "It's dreadful of me, I know, but I've been eating onions."

"Great Scott, Fannie!" he exclaimed.
"You don't think that's a scoop on me, do you? I knew that as soon as I came in."—Chicago Tribune.

Reviving Appreciation.
"What's an 'octogenarian,' Cousin Martha?"

"Well, an octogenarian is a man who hates life when he is 70, but gets proud of himself again at 80."—Indianapolis Journal.

are falling all over themselves to get tickets. Corbett is seemingly in the perfection of condition and is a marvel to the pugilistic world. He looks the perfect picture of health and is absolutely confident of success. He went through 23 rounds with big Gus Rhulin today and came out fresh as a daisy.

On the other hand Jeffries is also just as confident and today stated that he would go at Corbett like a tiger from the start and never give Jim a chance to jab him to pieces like he did Sullivan.
Corbett money is plentiful with odds on Jeffries of two to one.

Senate Will Pass the Bill.

Special to the JOURNAL.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—The Republican leaders in the Senate, who are opposed to the passage of the Nicaraguan canal bill except with the Hay treaty, realized today that it would be almost impossible to stem the tide setting in favor of the bill. It now seems almost certain that the House bill with few amendments, will pass the Senate at the present session.

Tommy Goes Marching on.

Special to the JOURNAL.

BLOEMFONTEIN, May 7.—The Boers are everywhere retreating before Lord Roberts' advance toward Pretoria. It is believed that they will make a stand in the mountains adjacent to Kroonstadt, the new Boer capital of the Free State.

Several prominent mining men of Butte, Montana, arrived last night from Mason Valley, where they inspected some copper properties which they may acquire.

A Sunday Wedding.

One of Reno's fairest daughters, Miss Mabel James, was wedded Sunday afternoon to Dr. E. D. Eddy, a prominent dental practitioner of San Francisco. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. H. Jones at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. James, on Virginia street.

The event was a great surprise to the friends of the bride, a number of whom were invited to the James residence to tea. The evidence of the bride and groom in wedding attire was the first intimation that anything out of the ordinary was about to happen.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddy left on the late train for San Francisco, where they will reside.

Schubert Abend.

Of course, you know what the title of this local means. I don't; but the lady who brought the item in said it must be thus headed. It didn't look libelous, so it went.

The "Schubert Abend" will be given this evening by Mrs. C. E. Dutcher, Professor Philip Krall and J. B. O'Sullivan. The proceeds will be given to the ladies of the Kindergarten Association to assist in their laudable cause. Here is the program:

- A—Impromptu Op. 142, No. 2.
- B—Menuetto, from Op. 78.
- Das Wirthshaus.
- A—Da bist die Ruh.
- B—Am Meer.
- Impromptu Op. 90, No. 4.
- Die Post.
- Die junge Nonne.

Hardly Courteous.

Saturday morning the Stanford basketballists arrived in Reno. They were met by a brass band and a howling mob. That was proper.

The following morning they departed for their homes. Not an ed nor a co-ed was there to speed the parting guest. Dr. Stubbs showed up at the last moment and made apologies to the heavy-lidded lads and lassies who were parading up and down Commercial Row, stared at by the morning cocktail rosters.

Ladies' and Gents' Manicuring Parlors Removed to Hartung Building.

The homeliest hand is made attractive by clean polished, well shaped finger nail, emblematic of innate refinement. Don't fail to have them manicured. Open evenings.

Dailey Stock Company.

F. J. Dailey, representing the Dailey Stock Company, is in town arranging for that company's engagement. They are to open here Monday, May 14, for a week's engagement appearing in a repertoire of the late eastern successes, embracing such plays as "The New South," Nat Goodwin's comedy; "A Gold Mine," Gaillett's "Held by the Enemy," "Shadows of a Great City," Frohman's beautiful play, "Emeralds" and Dion Boucicault's Irish romantic drama, "Arra Na Pogue."

Miss May Nannary heads the clever company of players and she is ably supported by Stanley Rose, (late of the Alcazar Theater, San Francisco) W. R. Dally, Louis Belmont, Pryse, Mackaye, E. F. Nannary, J. D. Ginn, Al Abridge, Mrs. Louis Belmont, Margaret Lewis, Virginia Craane, and Serenita Deane.

The Daileys have the distinction of being the pioneer dramatic organization of the Pacific coast. Heretofore they have confined their tours to California, Oregon and Washington and no doubt they will be as well received here as in the larger cities in the north where they are the reigning favorites.

Teachers' Institute.

The Teachers' institute held at Dayton was both instructive and entertaining. Two days and evenings were spent in discussing educational matters.

The instructors from Reno were Dr. Stubbs, Professor Weir and Principals Bray and Caine. It was proposed to hold a meeting of the text book committee, but a sufficient number were not present.

One of the most important things of the institute was to organize a Western Nevada Teachers' Association. The district included comprises Washoe, Ormsby, Douglas, Lyon, Storey and Esmeralda counties. J. E. Bray was elected president. The association will meet twice a year to discuss educational matters and work for the up-building of the public school system.

Two Fine Performances.

The Gentry animal show gave two excellent exhibitions in this city yesterday. Their big tent was well filled at both performances, despite the fact that a rival show was in Reno only a week or two previous.

Gentry Bros. carry no sideshows or flimflam games with them, but give a straight, clean, animal performance. Their menagerie embraces a host of four footed and four handed beasts from monkeys to elephants, and all are trained to tricks that evidence almost human intelligence.

Preliminary Debate.

Tomorrow evening there will be a display of forensic genius at the gymnasium to which everybody is invited. It will be the preliminary debate to determine who shall be sent to Salt Lake City to contend in the Nevada-Utah intercollegiate debate. There will be ten candidates in the tryout.

A Shooting Affray.

Some sort of a row occurred Sunday at the edge of town. Nobody knows how it all came about except the principals in the affair and they are not saying anything. It appears that John Carroll and J. Tibbitts had an altercation in the latter's cabin and that Tibbitts, acting on the time honored principle that a man's cabin is his castle, tried to throw Carroll out and, not having any success by the exercise of unaided muscle pulled his gun—a .38 bulldog—and shot Carroll through the fleshy part of the right arm.

Carroll had the gun fighter arrested but he was soon out on $500 bail, furnished by Dolt Shau and Della Piazza.

Off on Wrong Foot Again.

One, Thomas L. Carson made a big bluff in Philadelphia the other day by declaring that he would bet $100,000 on Bryan's nomination and election. A Reno syndicate tapped the whole works or any part of it by wire Saturday. Thomas has not been heard from since and probably never will be again.

The San Francisco papers that arrived the following evening contain associated press dispatches identical to the item criticized by our slurs contemporary.

County Fathers.

Yesterday the board of County Commissioners held an "off-day" session. They didn't pass any bills, but hammered away for an hour or two on routine business, and then hied away to the west end to view the new bridge that now spans the Truckee.

Give Them a Welcome.

It is believed that the University track team will arrive from California this morning. Let us all be at the depot to give them a royal welcome home, for they did us all proud by their exhibition of athletic prowess.

A Complete Line.

The largest stock of stoves in the State is on exhibition in the warehouses of B. J. Gentry on Sierra street. Prices are right and quality is right. Camp stoves for campers and prospectors constantly kept in stock.

Noted Fraternity Man.

W. D. Kennedy of Chicago is in this city. He is editor of the Pythian Tribune, and is one of the best known fraternity men in America. He visited Virginia yesterday, accompanied by Sir Knight J. F. Aitken.

Get Quick Action.

Cunningham & Ferguson's groceries don't get stale. They are sold too fast. This firm makes quick sales by being content with small profits.

The old "dead" camp of Hamilton made famous in the days of the White Pine silver excitement in '89, is proving to be a very lively corpse, says the White Pine News. Lead mining has taken the place of silver mining. Last year there was more ore shipped from Hamilton than any other camp in the State, with the exception of Eureka, and this year it promises to break all previous records.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c a bottle. Sold by S. J. Hodgkinson Druggist.

Prevented a Tragedy.

Timely information given Mrs. George Long of New Straitsville, Ohio, prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. A frightful cough had long kept her awake every night. She had tried many remedies and doctors but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle wholly cured her, and she writes this marvelous medicine also cured Mr. Long of a severe attack of pneumonia. Such cures are positive proof of the matchless merit of this grand remedy for curing all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50c and $1.00 Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store.

Pleased With the South.

Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism.

KENNA, Jackson Co., W. Va.

About three years ago my wife had an attack of rheumatism which confined her to her bed for over a month and rendered her unable to walk a step without assistance, her limbs being swollen to double their normal size. Mr. S. Maddox insisted on my using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I purchased a fifty-cent bottle and used it according to the directions and the next morning she walked to breakfast without assistance in any manner, and she has had a similar attack since.—A. B. PARSONS. For sale by Wm. Pinniger.

Colonel Lowe returned Sunday night from his trip to Denver. He brought the good news that Hon. Thomas J. O'Donnell had raised $50,000 with which to develop mines at Cottonwood. The money is now in the treasury and actual work has commenced. That the company means business is shown by the fact that they have ordered a ton of powder. The Colonel remarked that inside of thirty days there would be lively times at Cottonwood.—Tribune.

Free Silver.

Cunningham & Ferguson offer handsome silver utensils as premiums for cash purchases at their store. Finest and cheapest groceries in Reno. A complete stock.

The Best in the World.

We believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best in the world. A few weeks ago we suffered with a severe cold and a troublesome cough. Having read their advertisements in our own and other papers we purchased a bottle to see if it would effect us. It cured us before the bottle was more than half used. It is the best medicine out for colds and coughs.—The Herald, Andersonville, Ind. For sale by Wm. Pinniger.

Five deaths from lagrippe occurred in Eureka last week.

In almost every neighborhood there is some one whose life has been saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, or who has been cured of chronic diarrhoea by the use of that medicine. Such persons make a point of telling of it whenever opportunity offers, hoping that it may be means of saving other lives. For sale by Wm. Pinniger

One FORM OF RESISTANCE.

"The elder Sothorn was a good story teller, and he particularly liked to dwell on his experiences at the outset of his stage life, when he was a minor member of the John McCullough company," said the old time theater goer.

"McCullough was playing in Texas, and in one town where he was billed to play 'Ingomar,' through some accident on the railroad, the necessary costumes were delayed.

"The manager was equal to the situation, however. He went to every butcher's shop in town and hired all the sheep and cow hides he could to dress up his supers.

"When McCullough came on the stage that night, he fell back appalled by the stench of the hastily improvised clothing worn by the barbarians.

"What do you think of them? Sothorn laughingly asked McCullough, pointing to the supers as the curtain rolled down.

"They neither act like, look like nor talk like barbarians," curly growled the tragedian, "but, by the gods, they smell like them."—Kansas City Independent.

He Didn't Choke.

Toward Mecca the thoughts and aspirations of all pious Moslems are turned, and at least once in his lifetime the good Mohammedan is expected to make a pilgrimage to that city. One of the duties of the pilgrim immediately after his arrival is to make a journey seven times round a holy portico outside the mosque. "We went at a great pace," says an Englishman, who, disguised as a Mohammedan, paid a visit to Mecca at the risk of his life, "and the day was growing hot. When the procession was over, we came back to the mosque and were each given a bowl of limpid water. I was so thirsty that I drank mine at a draft and asked for more, which I noticed produced a very good impression, for, as I afterward learned, this was the sacred water of Temzen, which an infidel cannot drink without being choked.

"This was supposed to be the water which was supplied to Hagar when she was perishing in the desert."—Christian Endeavor World.

And the Minister Smiled.

The York (Me.) Transcript says that a Portland minister recently called upon one of the families in his parish. He ascended the steps and knocked at the door. Receiving no response, he was about to depart when he heard a window in the next house open and a woman's voice say, "Mrs. Smith, the minister's at your door."

What was the pastor's surprise and amusement when he caught Mrs. Smith's response wafted gently around the corner of the house, "Oh, don't you suppose I know it!"

The next Sunday after service Mrs. Smith met her pastor and expressed her sorrow that she was away when he had called.
